

New Leaf Organics is a working vegetable and flower farm in its 5th year. We grow over 100 varieties of organic fresh and dried cut flowers from Mid April through late October.

Come tour our gardens in Monkton, Vermont and choose the color combinations you like, or let us surprise you.

We offer everything from “pick your own” to our “weddings in a bucket,” to full service arrangements. You can choose what works best for you.

Locally grown flowers are picked fresh for you so they last longer and help accentuate the natural beauty of Vermont all season long.

Would you like garden fresh flowers without the price of a full-service florist?

When you buy direct from the grower you are ensured the highest quality flowers.

New Leaf is owned by Jill Kopel. The flowers are grown with the love of many hands.

You are welcome to visit our gardens and farmstand from late April till we close in November.

We are located on the Monkton-Bristol Road, just North of Mountain Road and about 3.5 miles North of Bristol Village. Look for our signs.
